Fr PROVINCIAL & THE CURIA

Wish you all a blessed Onam Festival

FROM THE PROVINCIAL

BELIEVE IN YOUR DREAM, BELIEVE IN YOUR TEAM

Ronnie Screwvala's book 'Dream with your eyes open' is the story of a successful entrepreneur. The book is full of insights on entrepreneurship and human life in general. The very first sentence of the book is challenging: 'Failure fascinates and intrigues me...I've never understood why people are so afraid to fail'. One of the key messages of the book appears in the introductory chapter. "The future belongs to those who realize that the goal is no longer teaching talented people how to get a job but how to create thriving businesses as entrepreneurs or intrapreneurs/professionals in a company. If we master this, India will soar'.

Shouldn't our schools and colleges be shouting this from roof tops!

What struck me most in reading this fascinating story are his total faith in a dream and a team in the relentless search for excellence. He says, ' Believe in your dream and live it every single day...Build a team that complements yet challenges you, and hones your skill sets, and get them aligned with the big picture sooner rather than later'.

The message of the Apostolic Planning Team of the Province is so much the same: Get passionate about our dream, build teams, build resilience and pursue excellence always in ourselves and in our ministries.

A basic computer course mainly for Dalit Christians started functioning at Samskriti Career Guidance Centre, Pilathara; it was inaugurated by Dr. T. A. John, Principal of St. Joseph's College, Pilathara, on August 29. The objective is to help reduce the digital generation-gap by training the elders in computer skills so that they are able to understand the younger generation better. The three-month training course started with 30 participants, and many are in the waiting list. Thanks to Fr. Xavier Veliyakam for providing us with two used computers from the St. Joseph's ICSE School, Calicut.

LOYOLA, ALUVA

The celebration of the feast of St. Ignatius, our Holy Father, was postponed to Monday, August 1. Fr. Wilson Mulackal was the main celebrant at the solemn Eucharistic celebration. At noon we had a special celebration with our religious neighbours & close associates. Families of Jesuits from the neighbourhood, including those of our second year novices, were invited for the function. We were very happy to have Fr. E.J Thomas, an attached member of our community, with us for the celebration. Deacon Sheise, too, along with the parish priests of Thanki, where he is doing his diaconate ministry currently, came to share our joy. On August 4 we had a special Mass and get-together in honour of Fr. P.T. Mathew, the new Socius to the Provincial. Fr. Mathew was an attached member of community for several years, and a full-fledged member for the past four months. His presence was a great blessing to us in many ways. Thank you, Father! We wish you God's abundant blessings as you begin this important ministry!

On August 6 we celebrated the silver jubilee of our beadle Savy's birth. The First years made the week-long Indian Contemplative Retreat under the guidance of the great spiritual master, Fr. S. Painadath, at Sameesha, Kalady. After the retreat all of them look quite enlightened! Jack Achan is back here after directing a Long Retreat to a batch of Dharmagiri Sisters in Kothamanagalam. He is now getting ready for the next retreat! We were fortunate to have a course on How to Approach the Sacred Scripture by Fr. Henry Pattarumadathil. His classes and interactions were very enriching. Thank you, dear Henry Acha!

SAMEEKSHA/ ATMAMITRA, KALADY

A national research seminar on Happiness and Well-being: Multicultural Perspectives was organized by Sameeksha Research Centre at Sameeksha. Academicians and research scholars from all over India and abroad took part in the research seminar to explore the concept of happiness and well-being in different traditions. Dr. M.C. Dileep Kumar, Vice-Chancellor, Sanskrit University, Kalady, gave an excellent key-note address and inaugurated the seminar. Fr. Sebastian Painadath presented a paper titled Dynamics of Spirituality in Happiness and Well-being, and Fr. Xavier Tharamel on Understanding Happiness and Well-being from the Panikkarian Perspective.

Sunday, 14th August was a day of grace for the Sameeksha Jesuit Community. Fr. Toby made his final commitment in the Society at the Eucharist presided by Fr. Provincial. Several of us, Jesuits, friends and family members offered felicitations. All spoke well of the great enthusiasm with which Toby is involved in helping teenagers. The entire programme was marked with simplicity and devotion. About 160 people including Toby's dear parents and family members attended the celebration. Cardinal Mar George Alencherry paid an informal visit to Sameeksha on August 16 and had tea with the community. The JECI training programme at Sameeksha was a great success and our collaborators were moved by the eco-friendly environment.

Fr. Henry Pattarumadathil, who is presently in the Province, and is an attached member of Sameeksha community, gave the annual clergy-retreats in the dioceses of Ernakulam, Kannur and Kottappuram. The priests appreciated the Ignatian focus and contemplative dimension of the retreat. Henry also gave biblical sessions to the Jnanasameeksha groups at Kalady and Trivandrum. LUMEN, KOCHI

Fr. Adappur continues to hit the headlines. He has been featured in The Hindu for introducing Mother Teresa to Malayalees as early as 1959 when hers was a little known name across the world. Subsequently many news channels have queued in with their cameras to get his words on Mother Teresa in connection with her canonization. He will be in the prominent TV channels on September 4. Lumen community gave a warm welcome to the novices. It was a meaningful evening where their intellectual thirst was quenched by a vibrant discussion on the issues between media-men and lawyers and their socio-cultural impact. Their Jesuit companionship was enriched by the delicious dinner that followed, coordinated by Frs. Shin and Sanil. Frs Ephrem, Wilson Mulackal and M.J. Thomas joined the occasion. Fr. Shin gave a three-day recollection to the sisters of Vimalalayam, Kochi.

The housing project in connection with the Year of Mercy launched by the Jesuit collaborators and Lumen community has started collecting funds. Frs. Mathew Nampiaparbil and Abraham Pallivathukkal are the heads of the project. Other institutions and houses of ours are encouraged to participate in this project. Please contact any of the heads of the project for details.

The collaborators and the staff of Sneha Sena and Tik-Tik Life will spend a day together on 4th September. Most of us will be meeting for the first time though we have been working for years from various locations but united by one goal. In collaboration with the Peace Initiatives between India and Pakistan spearheaded by Jesuit Fr. Joseph Kalathil, Sneha Sena has invited children to write letters to friends in Pakistan. Fr. Kalathil will help reaching letters to Pakistan and letters of children from Pakistan to Kerala.

One of the major events of the month of Loyola Peace Institute (LPI) was the establishment of the first Peace club in Loyola, Poovar, with Fr. K. J. Thomas as the Animator. Fr. Sanil initiated the process. It is the first major step towards a long journey. And we are glad that it has begun among one of our very preferentially opted communities. Fr. Binoy will conduct the formal inauguration as he has started his Tertianship experiment at Poovar.

Ezhuthu Magazine has a full time marketing manager and circulation manager now. We also shifted the designing from Thrissur to Ezhuthu office in Kochi. LPI is collaborating with St. Thomas College, Pala, in organizing an Ezhuthu appraisal seminar and release function on September 7 at 11 am at the college auditorium in Pala. The next peace forum will be set up in the college on the same day. A similar gathering is scheduled at Gandhigram, Pathanapuram on September 10. All are welcome.

The dedicated and committed work of Fr. Roy as the Managing Editor of Ezhuthu is paying rich dividends. Construction works of a second floor above the present Snehasena building for the activities of the Peace Institute was resumed on the August 17. It is progressing well and we hope to get it functional by December. Fr. Sanil has started executing innovative strategies for effective marketing and wider circulation of Ezhuthu. A planning meeting of the Core Team of the Peace Institute is scheduled for September 11 at Lumen, Kochi.

AKJM, KANJIRAPALLY

The former students of AKJM, true to the spirit of magis and paying back their debt to society, came forward to put up a beautiful new gate at the entrance of the school. It was blessed and inaugurated by Mar Jose Pulickal, the Auxiliary Bishop of Kanjirapally, on July 29. In his inaugural speech, the Bishop mentioned that such a venture articulated the quality of training imparted to the students here. During this ceremony, the flood gates of heaven were opened and showers of blessing came down upon the participants in the form of a mild rain. This gate is named after Fr Antony Manjil, the first Headmaster of the school, who made AKJM a unique institution with his ingenuity and innovative ideas. Later we had a public meeting presided over by the parish priest. The chief guest of the day was Fr Sunny Kunnappallil, the Socius and a former student of AKJM.

The gate has been part of the developmental schemes for the school envisaged by Fr Salvin Augustine, the principal of the school. AKJM has reached the take-off stage with so many child-centred programmes with the support of the teachers and the parents. Now AKJM has become an interacting community of students, teachers, parents, and former students.

We celebrated the feast of St Ignatius with the usual gusto and enthusiasm. All the students received sweets. The community hosted a sumptuous dinner for the staff who in turn felicitated the Jesuits. All the priests and religious and the well wishers of the school in and around Kanjirapally were invited on July 31 to share our joy with a fellowship meal.

LOYOLA, POOVAR

The feast of St. Ignatius of Loyola was celebrated on a grand scale at Loyola Poovar. As the feast day fell on a Sunday we had the Solemn Mass on Saturday with Fr. Dominic Palakeel as the main celebrant. The invited guests included the neighbouring parish priests, religious sisters, members of the governing body and general body, JECI core group, the teaching and non-teaching staff and our neighbours.

Fr. Binu Kaduthalakunnel joined the teaching staff in the third week of July and started his new mission with zeal and enthusiasm. A significant event of the month was the 'Induction Programme' for the first year B.Com students conducted by Fr. Sanil Mathew Mayilkunnel. It was a great opportunity for them to discover themselves and set their goals as they began the academic year. We thank Fr. Sanil for his availability and skilful guidance. Mr. Christudas, a software engineer working with Microsoft in London, narrated his inspiring story that started from Loyola Poovar almost 20 years back. His eventful story left the students spell bound. In view of launching the proposed "Pakal Veedu" for the aged members of the locality in the year of mercy, a consultative meeting of the beneficiaries was held on August 29 in which 128 of them participated.

XTC JUNIORATE, BELGAUM

The month of July was a colourful one for our XTC Juniorate. The continuous rain had stopped and the sun started to peep in. Amidst our busy schedule this month, we had time for relaxation and celebration. We had a day's outing to Gokak falls on 12th August.

We celebrated the feast of the Assumption of Our Lady and Independence Day with great pomp and zeal. The Eucharistic celebration evoked the real spirit of 'unity in diversity'. The hymns for the mass were sung in different languages – Malayalam, Hindi, Gujarati, Marathi, Kannada, Tamil, Konkani and English.

We also got a chance to attend a three-day workshop on 'Skills for Effective Ministry' conducted by Mr. Adrian Rosario from Mumbai. The course helped us to learn skills which will make our ministry more effective and vibrant.

We celebrated the birthday of Schol. Sooraj on August 26. On this day four of our Juniors under the leadership of Schol. Albin Paul conducted a symposium on Amoris Laetitia, the Apostolic Exhortation of Pope Francis. The presentation was very well appreciated by all. Currently we are all immersed in the world of art; our 'Art Appreciation Course' is being conducted by Fr. Wendell D'Cruz, a well known artist of the Bombay Province.

SATYA NILAYAM, CHENNAI

We celebrated the Independence Day and Feast of the Assumption of Our Lady in a grand manner. We had the Eucharistic celebration at the grotto along with our neighbours and friends. We were inspired by the beautiful Independence Day message given by Sch. Velankanni (MDU). The Birthday of Br. Christuraj, Minister, was celebrated with a creative Holy Mass in which melodious Bengali hymns were sung. All the scholastics attended the SAP programme guided by Frs. Raj Irudaya (ADF), Michael Aloysanai and Jossie D'Mello. It was indeed a spiritual journey and an opportunity to get back to our roots. We had a wonderful and thought provoking presentation on the proposed New Education Policy-2016 by Mr. Prince Gajendrababu who is an activist in the field of education. We also had a class on non-violent communication by Fr. C.P. Rajendren (SRI). He gave us a method of practising non-violent communication in day-to-day life.
