New Year Resolutions

Do you believe in New Year Resolutions? Some believe that they are taken only to be broken soon after. We know from history that resolutions have been made ever since 153 BC and have its links with Janus, the mythical god of Rome. Somehow, it helps to take some resolutions because it reminds us of the constant need of renewal and re-commitment to our dream. Fr Kallepallil Commission while reporting after the recent evaluation of our schools wrote, "Most of our schools are functioning well and the infrastructural facilities are fine in most cases. All the same, they need to set the bar of excellence one or two notches higher." I think this applies to all our ministries in the Province. We need to aim for more excellence. Not only at the ministry level, but also at our personal levels: to acquire more knowledge, to go deeper in spirit, to reach out to the poor and to deepen our bonds with the Jesuit community. GC 36 invited us to row into the deep. May 2017 be a year when we will dare to row deeper, dream bigger and live the impossible dream. So, do not forget to make a few resolutions for the New Year.

ST JOSEPH'S, CALICUT

The Higher Secondary school was the venue for the sub-district level youth festival this year with Fr Devasia as the convener. Many of our entries secured selection to the district level. At the end of the Christmas examinations all the staff and students joined hands to arrange a fancy-fest in the school. The money collected through this initiative is to support the project of building a house for a homeless person. SPC training was organized for the high school boys and NSS camps for the higher secondary students during the Christmas vacation. Now that the third floor of the new school building is being concreted, the work is progressing fast. In the ICSE School, the staff and students donated money generously to our poor fund collection in view of supporting the housing project of the community. The Christmas celebrations were meaningful with gift sharing and cake distribution among the students and the staff. With the help of the PTA the school arranged lunch for over 100 inmates of St Vincent Home, and visited Home of Love with gifts for the inmates.

All fathers made themselves available for Christmas ministry in various parishes. The monthly community recollection was based on the discourse of the Holy Father to the delegates of the GC 36. Fr Anto visited the scholastics at Belgaum and Vidyaniketan.

The communities of S M Farm and St Michael's school came together to celebrate Christmas at S M Farm, Pariyaram. We enjoyed the sumptuous lunch hosted by the Pariyaram community. Nirmala ITI also had its own Christmas celebration in a simple and fitting manner.

The three-month Computer Training Programme organized by Samskriti for seniors was successfully completed with the distribution of certificates to twenty learners. Many Christian leaders from Chirakal region benefited from it. They were proud that they got the basic computer skills which they were able to exhibit in front of their children and even teach them. Rubhan Baby, the staff of Career Guidance Centre and instructor of the Computer programme, was given a warm send off by the learners, the Advisory Council members of Samskriti as well as JECI. The students of St Joseph's ICSE School Kozhikode and St Michael's Kannur spent three days each at Samskriti Sahajeevanam (SSJ), thanks to Frs Ramlat and Gracious Stephen. Other groups that came for three-day camps at the Centre include students of St. Theresas's school, Mahe, and the Mission League of Thalassery diocese. Fr Rajesh Jose conducted a one-day orientation programme for Nirmala ITI students, and also took classes on 'Laudato Si' in different schools and colleges. The Peace Club and other associate groups of SSJ had a one-day outing as part of our Christmas celebrations. LOYOLA, ALUVA

As the Christmas bells chimed all around us our whole community began preparing ourselves for the nativity of our Lord. To prepare us spiritually for the birthday of the Lord, Fr Binoy Pichalakkatt, fresh from his Tertianship, guided us through a beautiful Recollection. Then there were the 'temporal' preparations in plenty! The novices put their heads together, woke up their creative potentials and made a pretty elegant, eco-friendly crib, stars & a Christmas tree. Then on 23rd we had a special Carol Service for our neighbours. On Christmas night all the II Year novices went to different parishes for ministry. On Christmas day Jack Achan presided over the solemn Community Mass. The much awaited community days, coordinated by Frangle and Mineesh, were filled with fun and frolic. This celebration certainly revitalised our relationship with one another. On 27th Loyola organized the customary evening get-together with our neighbours to share the joy of Christmas. Then on 29th morning we had yet another Christmas celebration with the 'Papas and mammas' of the Old-age Home in Chunangaveli.

To add to our Christmas joy we were privileged to participate in the solemn Installation of His Grace Dr Joseph Kalathiparambil as the new Metropolitan Archbishop of Verapoly. We also got the opportunity to attend, in two groups, the Ordinations of Deacons Rubil and Sheise. Another significant event of the month was the Zonal Get-together on 21st. During this get-together Fr Jose shared the GC experiences with ours in the Zone. On that occasion we also celebrated the 85th birthday of great Fr George Nedungatt.

VIDAYANIKETAN, TRIVANDRUM

The Vidyaniketan community celebrated the feast of St Francis Xavier together with the St. Xavier's College community on December 3, 2016. Fr Roy Thottam led the juniors through the world of art for three days during the Art Appreciation. We also visited several art galleries in connection with the course. Thank you Roy Achan for your guidance and encouragement!

Our second term exams began on December 16. We celebrated Christmas in our community and in our ministry parishes with all pomp and gaiety. Various committees were set up to oversee the decorations and celebrations in preparation for Christmas.

The much awaited Community Day Celebrations were organised meticulously by our OSF's Royster Monis and Xavier Ekka. They made us literally run around the whole campus in search of a "treasure" during the Treasure Hunt competition. Our men enthralled the audience with their stunning performance on stage and off stage.

The Trivandrum Zonal sharing on GC 36 took place here in Vidyaniketan on December 12. Fr Devados, our Superior, was the resource person. Many Jesuits from the Trivandrum zone attended the sharing session. We visited the Loyola Community at Sreekariyam on December 14 for a friendly basket ball match and a supper.

Some of the eminent guests of the month included Fr Anto, our PCF, Fr Arul Soosaimanikam, the Regional Superior of Kohima, and Fr Suman, the PCF of Ranchi Province.

AADI, ATTAPPADY

The Family and Students' Counseling Centre has become alive with the arrival of a new counselor Ms Arya, an alumna of Loyola college, Trivandrum.

AADI was venue for three rural camps, of De Paul college, Angamali, the Ideal college, Kuttipuram, and the Ideal College, Cherupulassery. AADI also became the venue for an NSS camp during the Christmas holidays. The AADI team conducted a half-day Personality Development Programme each for the Govt. HSS, Agali, Aries Polytechnique, Mattathukad, Govt. College, Agali, and Govt. VHSE Agali. The twenty-member AADI kalasangam participated in the 5th JEMAI utsav at Kolkotha under the leadership of Fr P S Antony. The Christmas celebration brought together the staff and their families, the friends and neighbours of AADI, and JECI members. Lok Manch is making steady progress at Attappady with pocket meetings being held at all the four organizations under AADI unit. Though organizing adivasis is difficult, the positive effects of Lok Manch are already visible; people have started addressing local issues on their own. The second National Lok Manch Seminar at Pune was attended by the four organizational heads. We get used to regular visits by our big friends, the elephants, but Mr Naile, our Coordinator, found it wiser to shift his stay to Kottathara. Fr Jame Morais along with two of his students who secured gold in the State Karate Championship participated in the 28th National Karate Championship at Jaipur.

James Morais

ARNOS PADIRI ACADEMY, VELUR

The anniversary celebration of Samadarsana Vedi – a JECI initiative in Velur- was held at Arnos Padiri Academy on November 20. There are 125 members in this socio-cultural initiative. The talk on family life- challenges and remedies by noted family counselor Prof. Rajewari Kunjamma was the highlight of the programme. It was followed by cultural entertainments and agape.

Bharathpravesh 316 was organized by Arnos Padiri Academy, under the auspices of Arnos Forum, Thrissur, to mark the 316th year of Arnos Padiri's arrival in India. The function was held at the Sahitya Academy, Thrissur, on December 13, and was inaugurated by Prof. Sarah Joseph, the noted writer and social activist. The list of speakers included Dr Tholur Sasidharan, Dr Fr Louis Edakalathur, Vadakumpat Narayanan, E D Davis, Dr M D Jose, Dr V A Varghese and John Kalliyath.

LOYOLA, POOVAR

At the end of the year as we look back we have a lot to be grateful for. Some former associates of Loyola Poovar who had been a bit apprehensive about our newer initiatives like higher education are now more than convinced and have whole-heartedly chipped in. JECI Poovar unit has raised a lakh and a quarter for a Scholarship Fund for the meritorious students of Loyola Institute of Commerce. The Scholarship is a tribute to Fr Antony Manipadam a relentless champion of education of the coastal children; thanks to him, there are scores of highly placed professionals in all walks of life. The same group has promised assistance for the renovation of our dilapidated Kalakshetram (Auditorium). The assistance and the encouragement that we receive from the province is proof of our collective priority and owning up. We have also a very positive experience of support from Loyola, Community, Sreekaryam - our partner apostolic community. We also thank all those Jesuits who have been exceptionally generous and kind in sharing their valuable time interacting with our students and staff on various occasions.

INIGO SADAN, BANGALORE

The season of Christmas was filled with joyous experiences for us of Inigo Sadan community. As nature was getting ready for the winter season, community members got busy with preparations for the feast both externally and internally. The month began with two striking events. One was the ordination of five deacons of Karnataka Province in the Bangalore region. The second was “Enlightening others with the wisdom gained from GC 36”, which was led by Fr Stany, the Provincial, along with two GC delegates. Indeed it was an inspiring sharing for all of us.

We had different levels of Christmas celebration in the community. The Inigo Sadan community hosted Christmas gatherings for our benefactors, neighbours and collaborators, for our extended community members, hostellers and boarders. Sharing love with one another filled our hearts with Christmas joy.

Sch Deslin went to Solur for an outreach program at the beginning of the month. Sch Anjo took initiative in adorning a creative Christmas tree in the College. Sch Sebin organized a Christmas program for our college students in St Louis Boarding House, which added to the joy of both the U.G. Science students and our boarders.

Dn Sheise paid a visit to our community, as he had a special invitation to become the official photographer for the ordination ceremony.

Anjo

XTC, BELGAUM

The month of December began with our ten-day of pastoral exposure at the Bom Jesu Basilica, Old Goa. All of us got various types of works during the Novena and on the feast day, December 3. We saw and experienced the bodily presence of St Francis Xavier. We experienced the deep faith of the people towards their Goincho Sahib.

We had a World History course of four days from December 13 to 16. The course, conducted by Fr Rinald D’souza changed our perspective about world history.

As we celebrated Christmas we Juniors put up a one act play based on Christmas in the Fatima Cathedral, Belgaum. It was well appreciated by the Bishop and the parishioners. Immediately after December 25 we began our community days; we had a lot of fun and frolic. The next important event was the annual Visitation of our PCF, Fr Anto Muringathery. It was a joyful experience for us to meet our PCF for the first time.

We Juniors wish all the Province members, “A Very Prosperous and Grace filled New Year 2017.”

Christy J.P

DE NOBILI COLLEGE, PUNE

We began the month of December with the joy of Fr Thomas Karimundackal joining the JDV faculty. We were also happy to welcome Fr Ranjit, who was on an industrial visit with the students from Loyola College, Trivandrum. Our theologians had the semester exams before JDV was closed for Christmas holidays. We had a meaningful preparation for Christmas here at DNC. Prior to the community’s celebration, we organized Christmas celebration for the underprivileged children of our different ministry groups. There was also a Christmas celebration organized for the co-workers who play a major role in making our lives comfortable at DNC. In the community we had the solemn Eucharist followed by a short gathering where we sat around singing carols before dinner. We also collected and distributed old and useable clothes to the least privileged. We began our Triduum on December 29 guided by Fr M I Raj of Gujarat Province. Now we are all set to welcome the New Year with all its surprises and experiences.

JESA & LOK MANCH

The death of Fr Sabu Malayil has been an irreplaceable loss for Kerala JESA, considering the selfless contribution he has made to our marginalized brothers and sisters and especially his recent committed work with the inter-state migrants at Jeevika, Kalady.

The second National Workshop on Lok Manch was held at J D V, Pune, from November 22–25, 2016. It brought together about 120 organization heads and other partners from different parts of India for reflection, review and planning. JESA-Lok Manch organization heads of AADI, Sneharam and TUDI and other Lok Manch partners in Kerala participated. The workshop helped to evolve an action plan for the next year with a clear activity matrix. The annual JESA meeting of Coordinators of Social Action (CSA) was held soon after the workshop; Lourdes Baptista, Director, Assistancy Development Office (ADO) initiated a discussion with the CSAs on evolving a common brand name and sustainable common action plan for all our social action centres. Fr Benny Chiramel presented a position paper on 'Communalism and Our Response'.

Fr Benny presented the major findings of a collaborative study on inter-state migrants at a seminar in Town Hall, Kozhikode. The study was joint effort by Jeevika, Kalady, Jeevika-MOS-SRC, Kozhikode and Sneharam, Anchuthengu, in collaboration with ISI-Bangalore. LOK MANCH has completed one year of its activities in October, and has entered a new field related to National Food Security Act (NFSA). As part of it Sneharam conducted a half-day workshop for its animators and community leaders. The presence of Muslim women representatives from a Lok Manch pocket in Perumathura attending the workshop at Sneharam was a pleasant surprise. The Imam of the main Mosque has agreed to use a Malayalam version of our instruction materials on NFSA for sessions with the women at his Mosque. LOK MANCH plans to have more capacity building training workshops for the community leaders, and interventions based on them, for ensuring the rights of our priority communities in Thiruvananthapuram, Wayanad and Palakkad.
