FROM OUR INSTITUTIONS

CHRIST HALL, KOZHIKODE

Even though February is the shortest month of the year, it was a lively and grace-filled time for the Christ Hall community. We happily celebrated the birthdays of Frs V.C. George, T.V. John, Deepak, and Br Vattukulam. Our house also hosted the JIGSA meeting and the Province Annual Budget meeting.

Fr Antu, our infirmarian, returned after a month of ministry at Infant Jesus Church, Kunnel Alangad. We are also glad to share that Frs C.J. Joseph and Mani are recovering well.

Christuraja School marked its Annual Day with great joy and enthusiasm. The students beautifully showcased their talents through a variety of cultural programmes. Meanwhile, the construction of the new church and new SRC building continue to progress steadily.

The SRC was active throughout the month, organizing migrant outreach programmes and retreats.

ST. JOSEPH'S, KOZHIKODE

The Provincial's visitation to the community was a moment of grace and encouragement. He warmly interacted with the staff and collaborators of both St. Joseph Boys Higher Secondary School and Loyola School, Kozhikode, and appreciated their dedicated service in the mission of education.

Loyola School, Kozhikode witnessed a vibrant and eventful month marked by academic excellence, cultural expression, and sporting enthusiasm, making it a period of active engagement and achievement for the entire school community.

The school successfully organised the 4th Fr John Mialil Memorial Football Tournament, in which St. Joseph Boys Higher Secondary School emerged as champions after defeating Zamorins HSS, Kozhikode in a thrilling and closely contested final match.

The campus was honoured by the visit of Fr Henry Pattarumadathil, whose presence inspired both students and staff. Student leaders extended a warm welcome, and he later interacted with the faculty, appreciating their commitment to holistic education and value formation.

A heartfelt farewell assembly was organised for the Grade 10 students, followed by a special blessing ceremony in the afternoon, invoking divine guidance as they prepare to face their board examinations.

The cultural highlight of the month was the Loyola Star Singer Programme, held on 11 February, featuring 48 talented student performers. The closing ceremony was graced by noted singers Shinnesh Shinu and Niyaz Hazan, who captivated the audience with their performances and encouraging presence.

On 14 February, the school hosted Loy Tots Fiesta, a colourful and joyful children's fest where the youngest learners confidently showcased their talents through a variety of performances and activities, delighting parents and teachers alike.

The Grand Finale of the Mastermind Quiz, conducted on 25 February, brought together the institution's brightest minds, fostering a spirit of curiosity, knowledge, and healthy academic competition.

The school's innovative reading initiative, Golden Moments: A Journey with Books received wide media recognition and was featured on Manorama News and Mathrubhoomi News, highlighting the institution's efforts to cultivate strong reading habits and reflective thinking among students.

Meanwhile, the ICSE Board Examinations conducted by the Council for the Indian School Certificate Examinations commenced on 17 February, marking the beginning of an important academic phase. Students faced the examinations with preparedness, confidence, and the support of their teachers and families.

SARVODAYA, EACHOME

Sarvodaya School celebrated its anniversary on 6 February. It was an afternoon programme compared to previous years. The entire programme got over by 7.00 p.m. A well-organized programme and nicely performed cultural items filled our hearts and minds. All present enjoyed the programme. Congratulations to all who toiled behind the curtain.

As part of the platinum jubilee we had gathering of former staff members, including Jesuits and non Jesuits. Fr Joseph Pulickal, the then Provincial who bought the school, gave an inspiring message. The guests were given a small gift as a token of our appreciation for their presence.

Sarvodaya campus was blessed with the presence of the Provincial for his maiden visitation.

Jacob Kumminiyil

ST MICHAEL'S, KANNUR

The month of February was truly a blessing for our community. We were honored by the visitation of our Fr Provincial, which brought joy and encouragement to everyone. One of the major highlights of the month was the grand prize distribution ceremony of "Versora - Season 1," a trilingual poetry recitation competition. Around 700 students from the Pre-Primary, LP, UP, HS, and HSS sections actively participated in the competition. A special feature of the event was that all 700 participants received a memento, making the celebration inclusive and memorable for every student.

We were grateful to have Fr Henry as the Chief Guest for the prize distribution ceremony. A three-day study camp was organized for HSS students who needed additional academic support in preparation for their board examinations. The camp provided focused guidance and encouragement to help them perform confidently in their exams.

On the last day of the month, Padanolsavam was conducted for the LP and UP students. The event served as a vibrant platform for students to showcase the knowledge and skills they had gained throughout the year. Ms. Reshma Vinod, Councillor of Kannur Corporation, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest.

We were also saddened to hear about the demise of Sr Mary Regis, FCC, the younger sister of Fr Joseph Edassery. Fr Tomson and Fr Raju represented the community at the funeral and offered their prayers and condolences.

S.M. FARM/NIRMALA ITI/SAMSKRITI/IRC, PARIYARAM

Fr Benny Chiramel was with us for making his annual retreat. Fr Joe Mathew attended the funeral of M.R. Gregory (81), Maternal Uncle of Fr Immanuel Koyan. Fr Joe Mathew joined hands with Fr Dominic Palakeel to offer a 16 day Ignatian Spirituality and Discernment Retreat for the Propaedeutic Seminarians of the Latin Dioceses of Kerala. Frs Prince and C.T. Jose attended the Budget meeting held in Kozhikode. Fr Jose Pulinthanath has recruited a new Supervisor for S.M. Farm.

The second year students of MMV and TPES gave a good performance at the district-level Science and Technology Exhibition held at the College of Engineering and Technology, Kaithapram. Other students and staff also attended the seminars and motivation programme held at the Exhibition site. The MMV trainees are out for their month-long internship in various companies. Certainly, it improves their employability skills.

The Samskriti team network with Nanma Paliative unit, headed by the DSS sisters, to offer spoken English Training programme for the local people of Pattuvam area. The Pattuvam Grama Panchayat President, Mr Divakaran, inaugurated the programme. Fr Joe Mathew was made a member of the advisory body of the Government Higher Secondary School, Pattuvam for the year 2026–2027. Samskriti is collaborating with Sneharam, Anjengo to offer the English Unlimited programme of JWL to the migrant labourers of S.M. Farm and IRC.

The retreats at IRC are going in full swing. The priests of the Kannur Diocese had their recollection and council meeting at IRC. Fr Prince offered points for the recollection. Both the Bishops, Rt. Rev. Alex Vadakkumthala and Rt. Rev. Dennis Kuruppaserril were present. Fr Prince is away in UK and Ireland for three weeks for retreat ministry. He will be based at the Divine Retreat Centre, UK.

LOYOLA, ALUVA

February was a significant month for the Loyola Novitiate community, marked by events that fostered unity, commitment, and spiritual development. On February 5, the community was honored by the official visit of our Provincial, Fr Henry. His presence was a matter of great joy, and the occasion provided a meaningful opportunity for members to make their manifestation of conscience, underscoring their consecrated lives. A particularly noteworthy event, "The Cassock Day," was observed on February 6, 2026. On this day, the novices received the ministries of Lector and Acolyte, conferred by the Provincial. This was a memorable milestone in their path toward Jesuit life. The Psycho-Spiritual Team of the Kerala Province had their annual meeting on February 8. On February 11, Fr E.P. Mathew delivered an insightful session on Vietnamese culture and the rich history of Jesuit missions.

Fr Gracious went to Trivandrum to guide programme on safeguarding for the Jesuits of Trivandrum. Later in the month, the community went on a walking pilgrimage to Malayattoor, led by Fr Gracious. Schs. Affin and Charis accompanied the group, and Fr Manesh joined from Kalady. The Sameeksha community graciously prepared breakfast for the pilgrims. Two C.J. sisters are currently engaged in their annual Ignatian retreat under the guidance of Fr Rachans.

Throughout February, the community was diligently and prayerfully preparing for the forthcoming mission experiment, scheduled to commence on March 5 in their respective provinces. The community requests your valuable prayers during this mission.

SAMEEKSHA/ATMAMITRA/JEEVIKA, KALADY

Rajan Swamy presented Chapter 15 of the Gita as part of the Dharmasameeksha series. Fr Sebastian Painadath conducted a meditation course in mid-Feb. He gave an online course on the Trinity for Jnanasameeksha. He also gave an online programme on the Gita for a group of Hindus. Fr Xavier Tharamel was at Vidyajyothi, Delhi, to deliver a few lectures. Fr Manesh offered yoga-meditation courses to Ashrama Aikya members and students from Munster University, Germany.

Jeevika MWM continues its dedicated service to migrants through outreach, advocacy, and emergency support. The team addressed wage issues faced by migrants in Kandanthara and strengthened collaboration with police and district authorities through meetings at the Aluva SP office. A health initiative was planned with KSACS and the Health Department, followed by active volunteering in a major health camp at Perumbavoor. It benefited over 2,500 migrants. The team visited an injured migrant at the Government Medical College, Kottayam, and supported his treatment. Efforts also included identifying school dropouts for admission and facilitating the dignified repatriation of late Bijaya Behera's mortal remains.

Manesh J.

LUMEN-JYOTHIS, KOCHI

The Lumen community began the month with the solemn celebration of the Birthday of Fr Anil Kochumethikalam on February 1. The Newman Association had a special meeting on February 26 to remember Cardinal Newman, as he was declared a Doctor of the Church. Pope Leo XIV declared this saint the 38th Doctor of the Church on November 1, 2025. Rev. Dr Stanly Pulprayil, Rector, St. Joseph's Pontifical Major Seminary, Aluva and Dr K.M. Mathew, President, Newman Association, gave insightful presentations.

Fr Binoy was away in Delhi and Bodhgaya as part of the Peace and Reconciliation Network meetings. The LIPI team was at Loyola, Sreekariyam for initiating the activities of the Research Cell. We were glad to have a short celebration of the Birthday of Fr Deepak (February 27) as he came along with Fr Jose, the Province Treasurer for some official work.

Fr M.J. Thomas celebrated his 85th Birthday on March 2, and the community remembered the occasion at the special Eucharistic celebration and an evening dinner.

LOYOLA INSTITUTIONS, SREEKARIYAM

Loyola School

Loyola School experienced a vibrant and meaningful February marked by creativity, celebration, and compassion. A major highlight was the release of personal magazines prepared by both students and teachers, reflecting personal experiences, artwork, creative writing, and thoughtful reflections. The magazines were inaugurated by V.D. Satheesan, the leader of the Opposition, Government of Kerala Assembly who inspired the school community to value originality and expression.

The school also honoured five retiring staff members with a heartfelt farewell, acknowledging their dedicated service. Events such as the Tik Tik Life Mega Quiz, Loyola Super Singer – Season 2, and Instrumental Music Day added vibrancy to campus life, while educational visits enriched experiential learning.

The month concluded with Loaf of Love, Loyola's signature outreach programme, through which the school community reached out to five institutions, offering food provisions and companionship—reaffirming that education at Loyola is rooted not only in excellence, but also in empathy.

Loyola College

The past few weeks at Loyola have been a season of steady academic rhythm and vibrant campus life. The second internal examinations for the FYUG second semester students were completed, even as end semester practicals continue across departments. With theory examinations set to begin on March 9, the campus carries its familiar blend of focus and anticipation.

Admissions activity has gathered momentum as well. Notifications for both UG and PG programmes have been released, and preparations are underway for the Loyola Common Entrance Test (LCET), which this year will be held across five centres in Kerala—St. Michael's in Kannur, Loyola School in Kozhikode, Vimalalayam in Ernakulam, AKJM in Kanjirappally, and Loyola College in Thiruvananthapuram. Alongside this, applications have been invited for emerging faculty positions in the FYUG programme, marking another step in strengthening our academic community. Kindly direct those interested to the college website for more details.

Beyond academics, the spirit of service remains alive. The first year PG students began their NSS camp on February 27 at Ammanimala in the Neyyattinkara Diocese, immersing themselves in a week of community engagement and learning.

Within the Loyola community, we hold Fr Sabu, our Principal in Charge, in our thoughts and prayers as he undergoes treatment and recovery. Meanwhile, the Jesuit House recently completed a rigorous rewiring process—an arduous but essential effort that has significantly enhanced safety. The community extends heartfelt gratitude to Devasyachan for coordinating this major undertaking.

Faculty and student engagements have taken Loyola far beyond campus as well. Fr Ranjit accompanied a group of students on a ten day industrial visit to Himachal Pradesh, returning with rich experiences and renewed energy. Fr Saji completed a ten day refresher programme at the University of Kerala's Kariavattom campus, bringing back fresh academic insights. Several campus enhancement projects are also in progress, reflecting Loyola's ongoing commitment to creating a better learning environment.

LES

At Loyola Extension Services (LES), the team has grown to over forty members, strengthened further by the launch of the CODE project—Constitutional and Democratic Engagements for Social Transformation—supported by the Azim Premji Foundation. The third cohort of the DDI programme is currently undergoing its one month training, continuing LES's mission of leadership formation and social engagement. On February 21, the Centre for Constitutional Values and Dialogical Democracy hosted a deeply engaging panel discussion on The Constitution, Democracy, and the Future of Kerala. The conversation brought together Ms. Jyothi Radhika Vijayakumar, Mr C.R. Neelakandan, Mr K.P. Prakashan, Mr Karthik Sasi, and Dr Abey George, offering a rich and meaningful exploration of Kerala's democratic landscape.

Sanil Mayilkunnel

ST XAVIER'S COLLEGE, THUMBA

Loyola School, Thumba, celebrated its Annual Day with great enthusiasm and vibrant participation from students, teachers, and parents. The campus came alive with colourful cultural performances, and joyful celebrations by the children. The members of 'Jesus Youth' spent two days in our campus in a spirit of prayer and reflection. Fr Biju Joy represented the province at the All-India Jesuit Alumni meeting held in Goa. The community had a meaningful celebration of the birthday of Sch. Joel.

VIDYANIKETAN, THIRUVANANTHAPURAM

February was a vibrant and joyful month for the Vidyaniketan community. We celebrated the birthday of Sch. Edmund Darlong (KER). On 10th, all the Juniors visited Sneharam, the Jesuit Social Work Centre, and spent some quality time with the children and the Fathers there. We are grateful to Fr Shin and the community for providing us with a grand dinner.

On 16th, we celebrated our Academy Day 2026 with much festivity. The Juniors staged a play, 'The Rising of the Moon', which depicted the freedom struggle of the Irish people. The Juniors also performed rhythmic and graceful dances, showcasing the diverse cultural traditions of India. Rev. Dr A.R. John, Manager, Marian Engineering College, Menamkulam, was the Chief Guest. The programme was highly appreciated by the invited guests.

On 17th evening, we visited Loyola, Sreekariyam, and we are grateful to the Rector and the community for providing us with a sumptuous dinner. We really enjoyed the hospitality and the excellent ambience of the campus. Now that most of the programmes are over, the Juniors are busy preparing for the final exams.

AADI, ATTAPPADI

The 14th National Eco-Tribal Fest was held on 30-31 January 2026. It was successfully completed with a variety of cultural programmes and eco-competitions. A number of people from different states participated.

A total of 24 Jesuits from the southern provinces actively took part in it. Fr Henry Pattarumadathil, our Provincial, former Provincial Fr E.P. Mathew, Fr Deepak, Fr Binoy, Fr Anto Muringathery with his TUDI team, Fr Shin with his staff, Frs Immanuel Koyan, Rachans, and Gracious, along with the novices and Sch. Anil, witnessed the Tribal Fest. It was indeed a very positive thing to note that every community was ready to support and express its solidarity with our social ministry, especially the members of JESA. Around 4,000 people, mostly youth and students, participated, making this two-day Eco-Tribal Fest colourful and meaningful.

AADI organized the 14th National Tarumitra Eco-Tribal Fest with a view to promoting and preserving Mother Earth and tribal cultural traditions of art. On the first day, the Eco-Fest began with 'Gothra Pooja', followed by flag hoisting by village heads (Moopans). Mr Lathif, Member, District Panchayat, inaugurated the function, and Mr Allan, the Block President, presided over the programme. Fr Henry Pattarumadathil blessed the occasion with his words of grace. Mr Harikrishnan Nair, IFS, Wildlife Warden, delivered the keynote address. Mr Rajendra Prasad (Thampu), Dr Sadre Alam (JNU, Delhi), and student representatives felicitated the occasion. Fr Rephin Kamal welcomed the gathering, and Mr Rakeshkumar expressed the vote of thanks. Students from schools and colleges participated in the eco-competitions. There were 2,000 participants actively involved on the first day of the Eco-Fest.

In the evening, there was a cultural treat for the guests, and around 600 people were present for the cultural evening. A number of colourful art forms were performed by tribal artists from various parts of India. The Tribal Fest was on the second day, and the Chief Guest was the national playback singer and award winner Ms. Nanjiyamma. Other guests were Mr Kandasamy, APO, Attappady; Ms. Soundariya, AEO, Attappady; and a variety of tribal leaders from Attappady and different states, who were part of the inaugural function.

The attractions of this Tribal Fest were the following:

Tribal cultural performances from different states.

Honouring tribal leaders, village heads, tribal artists, tribal experts in different fields, outstanding students in studies and in art (State Kalolsavam), and tribal social activists.

AADI conducted competitions in tribal languages to preserve and promote tribal art and language.

Fr Yesu Rathnam (Andhra), Fr Arogyaswamy (Madurai), Fr Jerald D'Souza, Fr Anil, and eight more Jesuits from Karnataka participated in the Fest, and their presence made the event a South Zone JEMAI meet.

Fr Rephin Kamal gave a two-day session on Art Appreciation to our pre-novices in Wayanad. A number of trainees from various colleges had their internship and rural camp. The participants belonged to Assumption College, Changanassery; St. Joseph's College, Pilathara; Don Bosco College, Angadikadavu; and De Paul College, Kannur. Fr Antony organized five ToTs for 350 college students of Palakkad and Malappuram on the Constitution, in which 76 participated in association with KAPS (Kerala Association of Professional Social Workers) and KILA (Kerala Institute of Local Administration). The Trainers' Training aimed at promoting awareness of the values of the Indian Constitution.

XAVIER TRAINING CENTRE, PACHILAKAD

The month of February was a busy but joyful time for us. The beginning of the month was a time for practices for our Annual Day celebrations. We were also invited by the Sarvodaya School, Eachome, for their Annual Day on 6 February. Fr Joseph Pulickal, Fr E.P. Mathew, and Fr K.J. Mathew visited us during this time.

On 10th February, we went to Pallikunnu for the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. The celebration made us aware of the faith of the people and the powerful intercession of Our Lady.

The Pre-novitiate Annual Day was held on 12 February. The audience included nearby parish priests, sisters from the places of our ministry, Jesuits of the Sarvodaya community, and the families of the Jesuits in Wayanad. The programme was innovative and colourful, and everyone appreciated it. After the cultural events, we shared a festive meal with our guests. . Our annual magazine was inaugurated during the programme by Fr Joshy, the parish priest of St. Jude's Church, Panamaram.

We are extremely grateful to Sch. Affin, who stayed with us for almost a week and supported us generously in all the preparations, especially in decorating the venue. We also thank Sch. Charis and the candidates of Sarvodaya for their valuable help throughout the Annual Day. Fr Ivin visited us after completing his parish ministry and celebrated Holy Mass for us on Ash Wednesday. We were also blessed to have a Lenten recollection and Confession led by Fr Jaison. In addition, Fr Rephin Kamal conducted a workshop on art for us, which was a truly enriching and joyful experience. We sincerely thank him for his time and guidance.

During the month, we also had meetings with Frs Jose Jacob, Deepak, Anto and Gracious. Fr Baby Mulluparambil visited us to review the accounts of XTC and Prasanthi. Fr Wilson went to POC, Kochi, to take a session there. Finally, on 28 February, we invited the candidates from sarvodaya to our house to spend some quality time together before their board examinations commenced. The day was filled with joy as we played games, shared moments of recreation, and watched a movie together.

SATYA NILAYAM, CHENNAI

February is a season of pleasant weather in Chennai, but the impending season of exams create some amount of academic pressure. Fr Jacob Kumminiyil, our PCF, came to Satya Nilayam for a visitation during the first week of February. It was an occasion of joy and grace. The community had the yearly community picnic to Wonderla Water Theme Park on 7 February. It was well organized, and it rejuvenated us. The Treasurers of Common Houses and the Finance Committee of JCSA held a one-day meeting in Satya Nilayam on 16 February. Fr Sunil was present for the meeting. Satya Nilayam Research Institute organised a National Seminar at Loyola College on the theme “The Human Person and Dignity: Dialogue Across Disciplines”. It was an academically enriching experience. On 28 February, the first-year scholastics organised a grand Farewell programme for our staff- Fr Lawrence, Joel, Rajeev, Linday and the second-year scholastics. The devotional Way of the Cross is being conducted every week with a good number of neighbours’ participation.

Rina

DE NOBILI COLLEGE, PUNE

On 14 February, ten brothers, including seven Jesuits, one MCBS, one Capuchin and one CMI, were solemnly ordained to the Diaconate, marking a significant milestone in their religious journey. Fr Jacob Kumminiyil, the PCF, conducted his annual visitation to our men. His presence provided a valuable opportunity, for meaningful dialogue. The third-year theologians successfully completed their Ad Auds examinations.

DNC hosted the Western Zone Cultural celebration, an event characterised by a profound spirit of brotherhood and companionship. Sch. Libin secured first place in the 26–40 age category at “Voice of Dakshin,” a South Indian solo karaoke competition held in Hinjewadi, Pune.
